ROCK HILL, SOUTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1934

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00 A YEAR

WINTHROP DELEGATES WILL GO TO ADGER

Lillian Hogarth, State Y.W.C.A. President, Has Charge of Retreat

Lillian Hogarth, president of the Y. W. C. A. of Winthrop College, as state president, will have charge of the Adger Retreat to be held October 12-14, at Camp John B. Adger, in Pickens county. This is the annual retreat of the Student Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. of South Carolina. The theme this year will be "What It Means For a Student to Be a Christian."

The speakers at Adger will include Mr. J. Owen Smith, of Clemson College; Mr. H. C. Bready, of Clemson College; Miss Mary Jane Willett, national student of Y. W. C. A. secretary for the Southern District; and Mr. "Jim" Handwick, of the Southern National office of the Y. M. C. A. Miss Kathryn Phoff, of Limestone, will be in charge of the music.

Other officers of the executive committee are as follows: Vice-president, "Rank" Wilson, of P. O.; and secretary, Lodina "Loddy" Gaines, of Carolina. They are assisted by Mr. Roy Cooper, of Clemson College; Mr. R. O. Bell, of Carolina; Miss Eliza Wardlaw, of Winthrop; Mr. Louis Wilson, of Erskine; and Miss Kathryn Phoff, of Limestone.

The "Y." secretaries from over the state will be present, as will delegates from all the colleges. Winthrop will send ten delegates.

JUNIORS ENTERTAIN THEIR SISTER CLASS

"Mickey" Speights Master of Ceremonies For Program of Music and Dancing

Juniors entertained their new sister class, the Freshmen, in Johnson Hall Saturday evening, at 8:30, Dr. and Mrs. Shelton Phelps, Dr. and Mrs. James P. Kinard, and all Freshman advisers were guests.

"Mickey" Speights, president of the Junior class, served as master of ceremonies. Entertainment consisted of a musical skit, "Barbecue Bill," by Mary Haynsworth and Dicky Burett, a dance by "Bee" Bryant and "Sis" Jones; "Inspiration," a skit, by Lou Klugh and Caroline Crum; and "Minnie, the Mosquito," a musical number with Lillian Walker Cockfield and Minnie Green Moore. Anna Louise Resner accompanied the dances.

After the entertainment, the Juniors served orange sherbet cups.

EDUCATION TEACHERS HOSTESSES TO CLUB

Miss Dena Lochhead and Miss Sadie Goggans Entertain With Garden Party

Elementary Education Club members held their first meeting of the year at the home of Miss Dena Lochhead and Miss Sadie Goggans Thursday, September 25, at 8:30.

Punch was served in the garden which was decorated with flowers and colored lights.

Juniors were guests of the Senior Elementary Education majors. Ninety-six members and prospective members attended the meeting.

Freshman Counselors Meet At Senior Shack

Freshman Counselors spent last week-end at the shack, discussing and planning work for the year.

The first talk of the afternoon was made by "Tootsie" Woods, chief counselor, on "Leadership." The "Problems of a Freshman," by Miss Sadie Goggans, completed the program.

After a social hour and supper, the concert came in to the college for the movie, but returned to the shack to spend the night.

TO CONDUCT VESPERS

The Reverend Mr. P. D. Brown, of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of South Carolina, will conduct Vespers at 6:30 Sunday, October 7, on the athletic field.

Y.M.-Y.W.C.A. Student Conference, Blue Ridge

I.R.C. LAUNCHES NEW PLANS FOR 1934-35

Year's Work Opened With Membership Drive Today—Every Member to Have Duties

Plans for the year will be launched this afternoon at the first meeting of the I. R. C. Friday, October 5, with a membership drive. After this drive has been closed, those desiring to join the I. R. C. will have to apply for membership and will have to be voted into the club.

The I. R. C. has been reorganized according to the following plan: (1) each member shall be assigned a country with whose affairs she must become familiar, regarding its current happenings; (2) the members shall be given the largest countries, the Juniors the next in international importance, and so on; (3) there shall be round-table discussions at each meeting for the purpose of creating an interest in international affairs and of giving the students a speaking knowledge of the public affairs of the Modern World; (4) there shall be a meeting of the Model League Assembly in December to which representatives from colleges and Junior colleges of South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, and Virginia will be invited—this assembly is to be the big event of the year's work; (5) a High School Model League Assembly shall be held in the spring for the high schools of the state.

Notices concerning the new plans are being posted on the bulletin board in the library corner way.

The officers for 1934-35 are Mary Jacobs, president; Alice Saly, vice-president; Evelyn Rederick, secretary; Mary Maize Mayson, treasurer; and Marion Bethel, Model League chairman.

A.A.U.W. ENTERTAINS AT ANNUAL RECEPTION

Winthrop Music Department Presents Program At Meeting of University Women

Rock Hill Branch of the American Association of University Women held its annual reception last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Uckle, 301 College Avenue. All A. A. U. W. members and college graduates of Rock Hill eligible for membership were invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Huckle received the guests at the door and directed them to the receiving line, composed of Dr. Helen K. Russell, president of the Rock Hill Branch of the A. A. U. W., and Dr. and Mrs. Shelton Phelps, home guests. Assisting in receiving were members of the social committee, Mrs. Kate O. Hardin, Mrs. J. Ed. Bess, and Mrs. John B. Hargrove; and the officers and executive committee of the chapter, Mrs. E. Radcliffe Smith, vice-president; Miss Ruth Shaver, secretary; Dr. Elizabeth Johnson, state president; and Miss Lois Black, last year's president.

About seventy-five guests were present. Mr. Walter B. Roberts, assisted by Miss Constance Wardle, Mr. Emmet Gore, and Miss Ermine Wilfong, presented a program of musical selections. Ice cream and cake were served during the evening.

Seven Winthrop Students Attend Y.M.-Y.W.C.A. Blue Ridge Meet

Last summer, for the first time in the history of the Southern District, the Y. M. C. A.'s and the Y. W. C. A.'s held a joint conference at Blue Ridge. Jimmy May, of Emory University, and Margaret K. Smith, of O. S. C. W., summed up the purpose of the conference in these words: "The chief duty of the Y. M. C. A.'s and Y. W. C. A.'s is to show students the way of life. The 'Y.' should always improve campus situation—making politics, social club relations, and student-faculty relations definite projects which may be bettered by a strong association program. The main thing for delegates to get out of any conference is a philosophy of life. Philosophy can fit any situation; whereas, technique is a blue print applicable only to one situation."

In an attempt to help the delegates better develop a philosophy, the group leaders planned to hold seminars, dividing the delegates into seven groups, placing a leader at the head of each group. None of the seminars was centered on one special theme, but discussed the students' problems as they were presented.

Seminar leaders included Mr. Kirby Page, Mrs. Mildred J. Morgan, Miss Winifred Wynn, Dr. A. D. Bell, Mr. Raymond Currier, Miss Olive Sonoma, and Mrs. Clyde Miller.

Mr. Kirby Page, editor of the "World Tomorrow," is widely known for his platform work and conference discussion groups throughout the country. Besides taking charge of his morning seminar and making additional contributions to the conference he is slated upon writing eight hours a day at his Blue Ridge cottage. He has written "The Sword and the Cross," "Individualism and Socialism," "Living Creatively," and many more books. Mr. Page is a socialist. In one of his lectures he said "There are five billion dollars loafing around in vaults not doing a lick of work."

Mrs. Mildred J. Morgan, of the University of Iowa, stated that she was delighted that the Blue Ridge conference was a joint session this year, for she felt that men and women should think out problems concerning their relationships together rather than in separate groups. She is now writing a book on adolescent adjustments and is working on her Ph.D. degree.

Miss Winifred Wynn is the executive secretary of the National Student Council of the Y. W. C. A.

Dr. A. D. Bell, pastor of the College Congregational Church in Nashville, returned for a second year seminar leader.

MISS LENA M'MULLEN SPEAKS ON MISSIONS

Student Volunteer Secretary Discusses Importance of Christian Work

Miss Carrie Lena McMullen, traveling secretary of the South Atlantic Region of the Student Volunteer Movement, spoke in chapel, Tuesday, October 2, on the "Importance of Missionary Work."

"The missionary," said Miss McMullen, "looks upon his work not as a duty, but as a joy and a privilege. Carrying the gospel throughout all nations is the biggest job in the world."

Miss McMullen explained further that it is also the most urgent and important job in the world, for the love of Christ includes everyone and His ideal claims the allegiance of every nation. Christianity has introduced culture to many backward countries and has supported mass education, sanitation, and women's rights.

The vastness of the scope of the gospel of Christ is astounding. It touches every country and includes every person, regardless of class or race. The work of the missionary is huge and ever-varying.

"Christianity," concluded Miss McMullen, "has a glorious future, a future in which each individual has a part. Be intelligently informed concerning religious work and live consciously and constructively for Christ."

President Entertains For Granddaughters

Dr. and Mrs. Shelton Phelps entertained the Winthrop granddaughters Wednesday afternoon, October 3, at 6:00 till 8:30 o'clock. Miss Lella A. Russell, Alumnae secretary, introduced the granddaughters.

While the guests were engaged in informal conversation, apple cider and ginger bread were served.

Gary Cooper and Marian Davies to Co-Star in "Operator 13" Saturday

Gary Cooper and Marian Davies collaborate in a musical extravaganza of the civil war period, "Operator 13," combining musical entertainment with historical fact in an unforgettable manner.

Marian Davies is attracted both in the role of the Southern belle, Call Lovelace, and in the role of the Northern spy, "Operator 13." One of the delightful melodies which she sings is "Once in a Lifetime." Gary Cooper as a Northern spy, Captain Jack Callender, falls in love with his fair enemy. The supporting cast includes such noteworthy actors as Jean Parker, Russell Hurd, Ted Healy, and Katherine Alexander. The Mills Brothers contribute the popular song successes "Angie Baby" and "Sleepy Head."

"Bess and Ben," a Walt Disney Silly Symphony, will be an added attraction to the Saturday night program, October 6, at 7:30, in Main Auditorium.

Y.W.C.A. COMMITTEES REPORT YEAR'S PLANS

Chairmen and Groups Meet in Johnson Hall to Discuss Work For 1934-35

All the committees functioning in the Y. W. C. A. this year met in Johnson Hall Tuesday at 4:45.

After welcoming them and explaining the purpose of their work, Lillian Hogarth, president of the Y. W. C. A., introduced each chairman in turn, who then went with her committee to some other part of the building to make plans for the year.

When the business had been completed, tea was served in the lobby. The committees and their functions are as follows:

Freshman Counselors
Helping solve Freshman problems is the big work of the Freshman Counselors. In addition to welcoming the Freshmen and helping them during the first week, the counselors meet with their Freshmen every Sunday night during the year to discuss any problem which might arise. The Freshman Counselors are as follows: Brenner—Dorothy Grinnell, Frances Mills, Eleanor Johnson, Virginia Clarke, and Elizabeth Prinson; Breakers—Mary Wells, Ruby L. Hueston, Gladys Terhman, Crystal Sanburg, Addie Lou Guyton, and Emma Lee Coward; North—Merrietta Tyler, Johnnie Bowie, Annie Grace Schick, Laura Marion, and Lucy Wright; South—Mildred McComb, Wagney Day, Perry Yearborough, and Corine Minton; Roddey—Sara Touchberry, Grace Smith, Louise Hall, and Mary Compton. "Tootsie" Woods is chief counselor.

The Wednesday Vespers committee plans to have a large number of its weekly programs conducted by students. Special dramatizations, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter programs are also being planned. The committee is as follows: Margaret Taylor, chairman; Malv Brown, Harriet Finley, Lucretia Daniel, Elizabeth Gross, Elizabeth Mitchell, Opie McCrary, Eva Fair, Nell Garrett, Laura Briggs Anderson, and Jule Sharp.

Sunday Vespers
Securing speakers and making general arrangements for the Sunday night Vespers are the duties of the committee headed by Rebecca Roberts, Church Cooperation Committee.

To promote cooperation between the students of Winthrop College and the local churches of Rock Hill, is the purpose of the Church Cooperation Committee. This committee sponsors the giving of church parties for the Freshmen, the formation of the "Blue Line," and the filling out of denominational cards. Members are Miriam Atkinson, chairman; Elizabeth Cain, Eloise Craig, (Continued on Page Four)

Wnthrop Sextette To Continue Broadcasts

The Winthrop College Sextette will continue its series of broadcasts from WIFT, Charlotte, Sunday, October 7. According to Mr. Walter B. Roberts, director, the sextette will sing the following numbers: "Bess and Ben," by Deems; "Butterflies," by Mildred; "Sleepy," by Maudie; and "A Dream Boat Passes By," by Lenore. The sextette is composed of Mary Davis, Ethel Parks, Anna Marian Busby, Miriam Speights, and Gene Arant. Mary Peele is accompanist.

DR. PHELPS WILL BE FORMALLY INSTALLED

Dr. David A. Robertson, Goucher College President, Invited to Make Address

Dr. Shelton Phelps will be formally installed as president of Winthrop College Friday, November 8, in Main Auditorium. The exercises will begin at 10 o'clock at which time the academic procession will form in front of the library and proceed to the auditorium.

Dr. David A. Robertson, president of Goucher College, and Dr. Shelton Phelps will make the principal addresses. The convocation will comprise the students and faculty of the college, members of the Alumnae Association, and representatives from other colleges and all sections of the state.

Dr. David A. Robertson, noted educator, has been president of Goucher since 1930. He received his B. S. degree from the University of Chicago, his L.D. from George Washington University and his LL.D. from Bucknell University. Before assuming the presidency of Goucher College, he was dean of the College of Arts, Literature, and Science at the University of Chicago and served as a trustee of Goucher College. He is the author of "American Universities and Colleges," a numerous papers and articles on English literature and higher education.

Following the addresses, the honor guests will be entertained at luncheon in the Winthrop dining room. Friday afternoon there will be a reception at the president's home from 4:30 to 6 o'clock; and Friday night, Kathryn Meale, contralto, will be presented in the first artist course number of the season. Guests of the Alumnae Association will remain over the week-end. Dr. James P. Kinard, president emeritus, is chairman of the faculty committee and is arranging the details of the installation.

NEW STUDENTS GUESTS OF LITERARY SOCIETIES

Dr. Wheeler, Head of Winthrop English Department, to Speak At Reception

Curry, Wade Hampton, and Winthrop Literary Societies will entertain the new students at a reception tonight at 8:30, in Johnson Hall.

There will be a school program in Johnson Hall auditorium, during which Dr. Wheeler, head of the English Department, will speak, and the presidents of the three literary societies will welcome the new students. An informal reception in the foyer of Johnson Hall will follow the program.

This reception is an annual affair, arranged to allow new students to meet old members of the three literary societies.

Chicora Culhoun is president of Wade Hampton society; Margaret Hunter, of Winthrop society; and Mary Lou Boylston, of Curry.

Y. W. C. A. Treasurer Makes Budget Report

Margaret Kernulas, treasurer of the Y. W. C. A., makes an official statement to the Johnsonian, concerning the "Y." budget for the year.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1934

THE "Y." OFFERS YOU—

"Friendship with God and friendship with one another—a privilege for every one of us that has a willing heart" is the offer of the Young Women's Christian Association of Winthrop College to every student.

It is left to each student to make the most of this offer of the "Y." by becoming directly connected with some particular phase of the work and by participating in the social and religious programs. Otherwise the "Y." can mean nothing to us as individual students, for we can hardly expect to derive benefits from something to which we contribute nothing. The "Y." has much to offer to the girl who is willing to receive.

One of the aims of the "Y." is to help develop well-rounded students by giving opportunity for friendships, social life, religious instruction, and leadership. Any student who feels that she has no time for participation in "Y." activities because she must study, is losing a valuable part of her education. She might have easily learned the words of her text book at home in her own room, but one must experience friendship and leadership in order to know how to mingle with people and to maintain her position in society. The "Y." gives you a chance for real development.

ALUMNAE VERSUS ALUMNI

We, as students of Winthrop College, have all been graduated from one of the various high schools of South Carolina or of other states. We are all intelligent; and we are at college, striving to become, what is popularly termed, "educated." When we leave Winthrop, we shall automatically be expected to know everything, from the mere fact that we are college graduates.

Most of us, however, are confused about what we ourselves as graduates will be called. We flounder over the terms "alumnae" and "alumni," usually deciding on a half-Latin, half-Anglicized pronunciation. Then we delve into the dark realms of some two years spent with Caesar's legions, and triumphantly bring forth another Mongrel interpretation in the hallowed phrase our "Alma Mater." We have a mixture that is neither English nor Latin—a rather bad inconsistency.

If we are, as we would all claim to be, intelligent students, the least we can do is to inform ourselves as to the pronunciation of two of the most common terms a college graduate should know.

WHOSE STUDENT BUILDING?

If the Winthrop Y.W.C.A. is an organization designed primarily to meet a certain phase of student needs and to become a necessity in every individual's life; then Johnson Hall, the "Y." Building, as an integral factor in the Y.W.C.A. make-up, should be regarded as belonging to every student whom the "Y." reaches.

Regardless of the cordial welcome that we receive at Johnson Hall, we are all too prone to think of it as the Y.W.C.A. Cabinet's office building. We dash over for a meeting and leave as soon as the program is completed, although on every side of us is eloquent inducement to stay a while. There are easy chairs, just waiting for a tired young person to sink down in; there are the latest issues of popular magazines scattered within easy reach of those inviting chairs, and there is a radio which everyone has the privilege of using. One might also add in boosting the desirability of Johnson Hall that pianos are available for the musically inclined, the exchange for girls with a domestic turn of mind, and pleasant companionship for the student who is socially minded. We have a privilege—to make Johnson Hall in practice, as well as in name, the "Student's Building."

S. C. Union Meets At Senior Shack

Members of the South Carolina Union will hike to the Senior Shack this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The social committee, including Ernestine Williams, Gladys Merriman, and Lena Allan, has prepared a program of contests, music, and dancing. Supper will be served after the entertainment. Doris Allen, the president, is in charge of all arrangements.

DR. KINARD SPEAKS

Dr. James P. Kinard made the principal address at the meeting of the South Central District of the Alumnae Association at Fort Mill Saturday, September 29.

Rachel: Say something soft and sweet to me.
Dorothy: Chastity, please.

Forces and Scalpel Appoints Committees

Forces and Scalpel Club held its first regular meeting Friday, September 28. Dr. Elsie Greene was chosen faculty adviser and the following committee members were appointed: Freda Neal, chairman of the Program Committee; Margaret Come, chairman of the Bulletin Board Committee; and Helen Talbert, chairman of the Refreshment Committee.

MISS TURNER RETURNS

Miss Allen Turner has returned from a home in Barrowville where she was called on account of the death of her brother, Preston G. Turner.

WILL ADDRESS CLUB WOMEN

Dr. Shelton Phelps will go to Sharon Monday, October 8, to make an address to the club women there.

Six Members Chosen By Education Club

Six new members were elected to Secondary Education Club at a business meeting Thursday afternoon, September 27. These girls are Mary Cornelia Boghin, Helen Grosland, Hallie Mae McKelthlen, Marie Sartor, Anne McCallum, and Virginia Scott. They will be initiated at the next meeting.

The requirements for membership in the club include a fundamental interest in education, a good scholastic average in education, and good social adaptability. Harriet Parker is president; and Mr. Willis D. Maggins, faculty adviser.

Mathematics Club Discusses Problems

Winthrop College Branch of the National Council of Mathematics Teachers met Thursday afternoon, October 2, at 4:30 o'clock. Becky Roberts and Elizabeth Prieson told of their trips to the World's Fair; and Mary Louise White discussed "Funds for the Mathematical Minded." After the program, it was decided that the time of meeting should be changed from the first and third Tuesdays at 4:00 o'clock to the second and fourth Tuesdays at 4:30 o'clock.

Beta Pi Theta Elects Eleven New Members

Beta Pi Theta chapter of Beta Pi Theta, National Honorary French Fraternity, has issued bids to ten juniors and one senior who are matriculating French. These girls are Lillian Benson, Elizabeth Brandt, Mabel Browne, Wagner Dye, Grace Johnson, Sue McCown, Pauline Nabet, Catherine Hahn, Pauline, Elizabeth Prieson, and Iris Stokes. Juniors; and Emmie Adair, senior, along with Mable Sartor and Addie Lou Guyton, seniors, who were pledged last year. They will be initiated into the chapter in November.

Chemical Elements Club Meeting Topic

Ethelyn Mitchell, vice-president of the Chemistry Club, was in charge of the program at a meeting of the club Wednesday, October 2. Rebecca Roberts, Elsie Brickle, Lucille Feindor, and Doris Hamilton discussed the history of several elements.

The Chemistry Club, which is an organization of majors and minors in chemistry, has as its officers: Helen Lawhon, president; Ethelyn Mitchell, vice-president; Catherine Turner, secretary; and Caroline Shaw, treasurer.

Y. W. C. A. COMMITTEE REPORT YEAR'S PLANS

Alice Saff, Rebecca Smith, Hettie Sweeney, and Helen Talbert.

Social Committee

All social affairs of the "Y." are planned by the Social Committee. The committee plans to entertain every student during the course of the year in addition to the large parties it sponsors at various times. The committee has as follows: Alice Saff, chairman; Margaret Hendricks, Virginia Barnes, Lizzie Walker Cockfield, Regina Le Gare, Leah Alley, Vance Martin, Katie Coker, Mary Wright, Jim Hollis, Josie Wells, Oli MacLennan, Elizabeth Kerulias, Mildred Phelps, Virginia Johnson, Katrina Partee, Sara Touchberry, and Minna Neumeier.

Religious Education

The purpose of the Religious Education Committee is to enable all students to see the close relation between religion and life, and to help all those who are not yet sure what they believe to find something definite on which to base their philosophy of life and religion. To fulfill these aims the committee has planned to bring to the campus speakers who will prove beneficial to the students.

Those serving on the committee this year are Mable Lowndes, chairman; Mary Hart Dargan, Mary Peck, Virginia McKelthlen, Frances Johnson, Adelaide Seaborn, Pamela Mont, Dorothy Scott, Mattie Coulter, and Virginia Root.

Morning Watch

Fifteen minutes before breakfast each morning, except Sunday, there is a de-signal held in the Main Building building by the Morning Watch Committee, which Harriet Parker is chairman. All members of her committee are members of her committee. Cornelia Cockfield, McComb, Mary Helen Perrin, Hattie Williamson, Mitchell, Emily McKeown, Marthaborough, and Portia C. Perry Yarbrough.

Publicity Committee

The duty of the Publicity Committee is to keep the students informed about the various activities of the "Y." It does this largely through posters on the "Y." bulletin board in Main Building. This committee is composed of Elizabeth Cochran, Alice Ruth Reeves, Elizabeth Hahn, Dorothy Theodor, Catherine Goble, Cornelia Brunning, Virginia Huggins, Floyd Foster, Elizabeth Holt, Kathryn Glyceron, Crystal Theodore, Juanita Buckley, Virginia Hudson, and Frances Shumaker. Frances Burnett is chairman.

Social Service Committee

One of the primary aims of the Y. W. C. A. is to help less fortunate folk "find a silver lining to their dark clouds"; consequently the Social Service Committee has mapped out a definite program to fulfill this purpose. Visits are to be made to girls in the infirmary; FERA students are to be aided in finding their places on the campus; playgrounds are to be organized again at the mill; and the committee itself is to study and discuss together, child labor. The Social Service Committee consists of Frances Putnam, chairman; Evelyn Hill, Lillian Werst, Dot Query, Willene Reeves, Sara Moore, Lucille Baletine, Kit Lake, Minnie Edwards, Virginia Scott, Deck Thayer, Mary Hart Dargan, and Cornelia De Champe.

Special Meetings

All plays, skits, and other special programs sponsored by the "Y." are directed by the Special Meetings Committee. This committee collaborates with all other committees in putting on special programs. Catherine Pauling, chairman, has as her helpers "Tat" Suber, Anna Louise Remer, Mable Bryant, Mary Maggins, Mary Louise Boylston, "Beth" Gibson, Dorothy Thackston, Mary Childers, Hattie Wilkerson, and Charlotte Terry.

Music Committee

The work of the Music Committee is to plan special music, to provide an accompaniment whenever the necessity arises, and to lead services of hymn-singing, especially at Morning Watch and at Wednesday night Vespers. The committee intends to get in touch with everybody interested in music and to organize a Wednesday night Vesper choir. Volunteers are readily accepted for this phase of the work. The Music Committee members are Anna Marion Eubee, chairman; Lillie Royal, Julia Warren, Evelyn Brock, Emmie Lee Hair, Virginia Camel, Gene Arant, and Gwendolyn Uimer.

Maid's Bible Class

The Maid's Bible Class is conducted for the dormitory meals every Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The lesson is usually taught by some member of the committee, though occasionally one of the maids will have charge of the lesson. The big entertainment of the year is the Christmas party to which all servants on the campus are invited. The committee consists of Elizabeth Kretchen, chairman; Mary Slare, Mildred McComb, Chlorea Calloun, "Lib" MacDonald, and Virginia McKelthlen.

Student Volunteer

The purpose of the Student Volunteer Group is not only to promote missionary education among the college students, but also to give to these students vaguely interested in missions and social work more knowledge and a better understanding of the field. This group meets every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Johnson Hall. Elizabeth McConnell is the leader of the Winthrop chapter.

The Class Forums

Each class has its own particular Forum which serves as a means of fellowship among the students and as a forum for the discussion of some of the disturbing problems. Leah Alley is chairman of the Senior Forum; Johnnie Bowie is chairman of the Junior Forum; and Mary Caroline Rogers is chairman of the Sophomore Forum.

Canteen

The "Y." Canteen in the basement of the Main Building is opened every day during the week at the following hours: 10:30 A. M. to 11:30 A. M.; 1:30 P. M. to 3:30 P. M.; and 5:30 P. M. to 10:30 P. M. The committee in charge is as follows: Frances Lide and Lene Lockheart, chairmen; Elizabeth Cairne, Virginia Barnes, Frances Lynch, Caroline Martin, and Catherine Turner.

Exchange

Located on the second floor of Johnson Hall is a gas-equipped kitchen and an attractively furnished dining room known as "The Exchange." The students are given the privilege of the use of the Exchange for a fee of fifteen cents in addition to five cents for each gas burner used. The committee in charge are Rose Nell Milling, chairman; Margaret McElhenny, Elizabeth Agary, Harry Dell Thompson, Evelyn

Rhodes, Jean Norris, and Elma Parson. Interested Group Committee

The aim of the Interested Group Committee is to provide an interesting and valuable way for every girl to spend her leisure time. A Book Club is to be organized to provide reading material for all those interested in modern fiction. Dances will be conducted after supper for girls who want to learn to dance, as well as for those who want to learn new steps. Handicraft classes will be organized and soon will begin making gifts for Christmas. The Interested Group also intends to be an orchestra of its own. The newest, however, is to be an organization of an "ab" club under the direction of the Interested Group Committee.

Members of the Interested Group Committee

Virginia Ball Committee

Virginia Ball, whom the Y. W. C. A. has supported since she was a baby, is an orphan at the Church Home orphanage in York. When the "Y." took charge of her, she was the only child in the orphanage who had no relatives. She enters the York High School this fall. Each year the "Y." sends her clothes, and remembers her on other special occasions. The committee responsible for Virginia's welfare are Edith LaRoche, chairman; Sara Besant, Caroline Shaw, Ann Moss, Mary Elizabeth McCutchen, Elizabeth Bandt, Minnie Hodges, Louise Bennett, and Louise Senn.

What They Say

The Y. W. C. A. is for Winthrop as much as it is for the world in a stormy time. Frank Snowden Hopkins writing in the Journal says that the 1930 generation has lived of the unreal, the superficial, and the materialistic efforts of the 1920 generation. Never, he continues, did a generation desire more earnestly a "positive philosophy of life." The Winthrop Y. W. C. A. offers to every girl on this campus such a philosophy. Through Vesper Services which the Y. W. C. A. sponsors, through "Morning Watch," and through the guidance of the "Y," sponsor every girl may arrive at a safe and sane code of beliefs to live by. Every Winthrop girl should be a beneficiary of the Winthrop "Y."

SEDLTON FHELPS,
President Winthrop College.

Throughout my connection with Winthrop College I have found the Young Women's Christian Association to be a constant and abiding influence for good in the college. I have always found at Winthrop a sane and sound religious atmosphere and I attribute this chiefly to the genuine religious spirit of the Young Women's Christian Association.

JAMES P. KINARD,
President Emory.

The Y. W. C. A. makes a real contribution to the happiness of student life at Winthrop College. The Faculty Advisers for the Freshmen find the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet and the Freshman Counselors appointed by them resourceful and invaluable in steering the new students through the registration and orientation. The Interest Group furnishes recreation and development by providing varied activities. The Vesper services are a source of uplift and inspiration. The Y. W. C. A. lives up to its motto of making the development of the whole personality of a girl.

KATE C. HARDIN,
Dean of Women.

For a number of years I have observed with much interest and appreciation the splendid work of the Y. W. C. A. It has been the observation that on the whole, the leaders in Y. W. C. A. work have been, at the same time, leaders in their respective churches. I believe that active membership in this organization improves the quality of individual church members, rather than making them national leaders and at the same time broadening their outlook. The Y. W. C. A. organization does not seek to supplant the church, but rather to supplement and strengthen. In short, the Y. W. C. A. seeks to provide a vibrant, wholesome atmosphere for religious devotion, to foster and encourage deeper and richer experience, to train religious and social leaders, and to work for a wholesome Christian college community.

A. M. GRAHAM.

The Young Women's Christian Association is a significant factor in promoting a vital religious life on the Winthrop campus. Its aims are to deepen religious understanding, to broaden the vision of the student body and to develop friendship. It provides channels through which every student can make some worthy contribution to Winthrop and in so doing enrich her own life. If the Y. W. C. A. accomplished no other purpose than its contribution to personal religious thinking and living which speakers, discussions and worship services accomplish, its existence is highly justified. It is a constant and a sustaining and an increasingly pervasive force in the life of Winthrop and its students.

ROBERT H. JONES,
Registrar.

Among the ideas that belong in one's philosophy of life is the belief, that one gets from living what one puts into it. The Y. W. C. A. is organized to give every girl a chance to give of herself in every way, and to gain the greatest possible benefit from her college life. Without such an organization, many a girl would have missed getting all the benefit she does get from her stay at Winthrop. The Y. W. C. A. gives a chance to develop and gain socially, mentally, and spiritually. An organization which does so much for each girl is worth more than can be estimated. It repeats each person many times for the support given it. As it has meant much to Winthrop and its student body in the past, it can be expected to continue to do so in added measure in the future.

SARAH E. CRAIGWALL.

I believe in the "Y." I believe in the principles for which the 48 triangle stands—all-round development for every girl in the college—work for heart and head and hand. It is perhaps the only campus organization in which every girl can find her place. Every girl on the campus needs the "Y." Its helpful, friendly fellowship, its generous interest, and its Christian teaching; and the "Y." needs every girl. Whatever your need, you will find its satisfaction in the "Y." whatever your talent, you can use it in the "Y." I believe wholeheartedly in the Y. W. C. A.

CHLOE PINK.

It is my opinion that the Y. W. C. A. has a different value for each girl on the campus, for it seeks to meet individual needs. It is not an institution that shows what it has to offer, as gifts upon the students, but rather does it stand with open doors to welcome those who desire to enter, that they may choose for themselves what they need or wish for most. The choices are theirs own. It also accepts whatever they may bring that may enrich the lives of others. Through this exchange it adds much that rounds out its fulness the student's life.

STELLA BRADFIELD.

Are there impressions always lasting? My experience gives me the answer "no"—in connection with the "Y." During a portion of my Freshman year, the "Y." is a very vague significance to me. It is only an organization which, as the Union Johnson Hall, where only a selected few could find a few duties. It did not take me long, however, to learn that among the many activities of the "Y." there was opportunity for everyone to take some part in the work offered, whether it be religious, educational or social. Through participation in activities relative to those phases, the "Y." has an entirely different meaning, and as a result has meant more to me. Through active leadership, I have a clearer realization as to how I can live my religion, rather than have it stored away within myself.

EDITH GORMAN,
Pres. Student Government Assn.

The Y. W. C. A. has a place for every girl at Winthrop. There are many different kinds of girls with as many different tastes, but the "Y." has met the demand by offering varied interests.

It seems to me that the "Y." is dated 1934; by that I mean that it is one of those few organizations that has kept abreast of the times—it is "of the students" and "for the students," having a time for everything—for serious study and spiritual guidance, and for fun and frolic.

If we, as students, would take advantage of the opportunities and contacts offered through the "Y," we would unconsciously enrich our everyday living.

CATHERINE WAONON,
President Senior Class.

The countless ways in which the Y. W. C. A. has helped me in the past two years make my appreciation of the association truer and deeper. It was a most helpful influence in my Freshman year and a great friend in my Sophomore days.

MIRIAM SPIEGEL,
President Junior Class.

When I first entered Winthrop College, my conception as to the part the "Y." would play in my life on the campus was entirely different from the part that it is really playing. I thought the "Y." had a strictly religious purpose in which the participants were "goody-goodies," and I was afraid that I could not become a sincere member. Since I have found out that my idea was completely wrong, and since I have taken advantage of the opportunities that the "Y." offers, I indeed feel lucky that I can call myself a member of the Y. W. C. A. What has the "Y." meant to me? It has opened up a broader view of life, higher ideals, and above all—inspiration.

MINNA NEUSSNER,
President Sophomore Class.

What does the "Y." mean to me? Like most Winthrop students, I've never really stopped to consider just what our "Y." does mean. On checking up, I find that there I do a great deal of my work and play. In fact, the "Y." building is the "busiest" place on the campus; besides offering religious training, encouraging a wholesome attitude toward life, and fostering stu-

Three Classes Elect Managers For Hockey

Mary Jonstone, Dot Manning, and Lorena Galloway have been elected hockey managers for the Senior, Junior and Sophomore classes respectively during the past week.

Mary Jonstone, of Edisto Island, has been on the first teams of hockey, basketball, baseball, track, and swimming. As a Junior, she was secretary of her class representative to the Athletic Board, and captain of basketball. She was elected chairman of the baseball club for this year.

Dot Manning, of Salisbury, N. C., was elected manager for the Junior class. She has taken part in swimming, hockey, basketball, baseball, track, and tennis. As a Freshman she was captain of basketball and baseball, and as a Sophomore she was manager of tennis, secretary of the Athletic Association, and member of the Sophomore Council. She is now on the Johnsonian staff, and treasurer of the Athletic Association.

Lorena Galloway, of Sumter, is Sophomore class manager. During her Freshman year she was captain and variety member of the baseball team, and a member of chapel choir. This year she is a member of the Sophomore Council.

News—Y's and Other Y's

It's week-end after next that we go to Adger—provided, of course, we can secure the where-withal! Only ten delegates are allowed to go from Winthrop. Lillian is state president.

It's going to be such fun—every college in the state is sending delegates, so it'll be an ever so much bigger conference than Barlow was—Jilly Winthrop this time won't be entertaining the delegates with that dramatic epic entitled "Blue Beard!"

The Council had a perfectly beautiful time wrapping itself around several thousand chocolate calories last week-end. First, Lil fed 'em thirteen cents worth of all-day suckers; then, not content with that, they hired themselves kitchen-wards and made fudge sundaes whole cups of it! And not one crumb did they bring back!

Slips That Pass in the Night: "Oh, no—you can't have your picture made in a blouse: It's got to be made in a shroud!" . . . "From the top of that mountain (at Adger), you can see in to three states—Georgia, North Carolina, and Greenville!"

P. S.: It might be interesting to note that Winthrop is providing two dishwashers for Adger—and so is Clemson. I guess we'll have to demonstrate "come out of the kitchen" this year!

Members Are Selected For Athletic Board

"Sunshine" Pierce, "Diddle" Burnett, and Nell Jackson were elected Senior, Junior, and Sophomore representatives to the Athletic Board at class meetings last week.

"Sunshine" Pierce, of Orangeburg, has been on the basketball, track, and baseball teams, managing baseball during her Junior year. She is president of the Physical Education Club which was organized last year.

"Diddle" Burnett, of Greenville, has been an active participant in hockey, basketball, baseball, and swimming; she now holds the positions of captain of the Senior Life Savers and cheer leader of the Junior class.

Nell Jackson, of Florence, has participated in swimming, hockey, and tennis. As a Freshman she was class representative to the Athletic Board, diving champion, and one of the four best Winthrop swimmers.

Home Economics Club Entertains Freshmen

Members of Delta Sigma Chi, local Home Economics club, entertained the Freshman Home Economics majors at supper, Wednesday evening, October 3, at the Senior Hall.

A caterer was arranged by Martha Garrett, "Boonie" Robertson, and Marguerite Gamrath, occupied the time spent on the way to the college farm. When the guests had all assembled at the Shack, supper was served. Louis Bennett was in charge of preparations.

Members of the Home Economics faculty were also guests at the supper.

Johnson Hall, Student's Building, Has An Interesting Background

John D. Rockefeller Contributed
$55,000 to Construction;
Alumnae and Students
Raised Equal Amount

Johnson Hall, the Students' Building, represents the culmination of the work and plans of many people—especially Dr. D. B. Johnson, founder and first president of Winthrop. In whose honor the building was named. Dr. Johnson felt the need of a building to be devoted entirely to the students; and, through his efforts, John D. Rockefeller in 1910 donated $50,000 on condition that Dr. Johnson raise an additional $50,000 to match it. Students and alumnae, at the urgent request of Dr. Johnson, procured, in the summer of 1919, by hard work all over South Carolina, the sum of $40,000; and, with the help of a few more contributors, the sum was raised, and work begun.

The students of Winthrop College felt that, since the building was to be important to the entire college, it should be named for Dr. Johnson. The dormitory, Johnson Hall, however, complicated matters, as two Johnson Halls on the campus would be confusing. The student body of 1920 then petitioned the class of 1920 to change the name of the dormitory from Johnson Hall to Bancroft Hall. This the class of 1920 willingly did; so at the commencement exercises of the class of 1920, when only the ground floor was built, the building was dedicated. Johnson Hall was completed, except for the auditorium in the following year. When it was found that additional money was needed for fireproofing, Rockefeller gave an additional $5,000. In 1921, additional funds were procured, and the auditorium was built. The basement was completed last spring. Since then nothing has been added to the building, though the Alumnae Association attempted to raise enough money to add a third floor for visiting alumnae. This project was later abandoned for a much larger one; but the elevator shaft for the third floor remains.

At the ends of the foyer of the building are portraits of Dr. and Mrs. Johnson. These paintings were gifts contributed by The Johnsonian and the Senior class.

The three sets of andirons and the grandfather clock are also gifts of different producing classes. Many other paintings have been given by friends of the college.

For years a college cafeteria was operated in the basement of Johnson Hall, but since it failed to meet financial requirements, it was discontinued.

Johnson Hall is primarily the students' building; all rooms and equipment are to serve the students' needs. In it are the Y. W. C. A. headquarters, the Student Government headquarters, Literary Society hall, and rooms for different organizations on the campus. Receptions, parties, and meetings are held at all times in its rooms; students have the use of the library, the radio, and the auditorium. Johnson Hall is what it was intended to be: a students' building.

ASSOCIATION HONORS WINTHROP PROFESSOR

W. D. Maginnis, 1934-35 Vice-President, Will Automatically Become President

Professor Willis D. Maginnis, of the Education Department of Winthrop College, was elected vice-president of the South Carolina Education Association for 1934-35. Mr. W. D. Niven, of Tusculum, was elected president of the association.

About the officers, the South Carolina Education Magazine for September, 1934, states as follows:

"Mr. Niven was vice-president last year and automatically became the nominee for president. Mr. Maginnis will automatically become the nominee for president at the next convention, but the constitution was changed at the 1934 convention, and after the 1935 convention, the vice-president will not automatically become the nominee for president."

South Carolina Education says about Mr. Maginnis: "Mr. Maginnis, the vice-president, has been connected with Winthrop College since 1912. Previous to this he had experience in the elementary and secondary schools of Indiana. He holds the B. S. and B. A. degrees from Tri-State College and has done graduate work at the University of Chicago and Teachers' College, Columbia University, where he received his Master's Degree in 1912. From 1912 to 1922 he was superintendent of Winthrop Training School, and since 1922, he has been professor of Secondary Education at Winthrop College. For the past two summers, he has been the director of Winthrop Summer School. He holds membership in Phi Delta Kappa, Kappa Delta Pi, and Phi Gamma Mu, fraternities. He is a deacon in the Presbyterian Church."

Mr. Maginnis is a member of the South Carolina Education Association and the National Education Association.

TRAVELING SECRETARY IS CAMPUS SPEAKER

Miss Carrie McMullen, Guest of Student Volunteers, Discusses Chinese Problem

Miss Carrie Lena McMullen, traveling secretary for the South Atlantic region of the Student Volunteer Movement, was the guest of the Student Volunteers of Winthrop College, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 2 and 3. During her stay on the campus Miss McMullen talked to the students individually and collectively.

At Morning Watch, Wednesday, October 2, Miss McMullen told the story of a Chinese girl in her search for God, and the meaning that "Christianity" holds in the life of a Chinese. The subject of Miss McMullen's talk at Vesper Wednesday night was "China." Having lived in China, the speaker gave interesting first-hand information on the customs of the Chinese, and on the problems now facing the young people of China. "Western culture and civilization is making a profound impression on the youth of China," Miss McMullen said. Further discussion of her native land concerned the missionary work of Miss McMullen's father.

The Student Volunteer group met with Miss McMullen on Tuesday afternoon, at 5:00 o'clock, to discuss plans for the year's programs. Miss McMullen led a short devotional meeting. She also held conferences for students who wished to discuss individual problems. Miss McMullen is the daughter of a missionary. She herself was born in Hong Chow, China. She was graduated from Agnes Scott, Decatur, Georgia, in 1924. Since that time Miss McMullen has done Student Volunteer work. Before coming to Winthrop, she had visited Mitchell, Davidson, Queens-Chicago, Catawba, and Salem.

FRESHMEN PERFORM Before SOPHOMORES

Program, Arranged by Harriet
Cockfield, Consul of Trip
Around the World

Freshmen entertained the Sophomores at the final big "rat" meeting in the Gymnasium Friday evening, September 28, at 8:30.

The program, arranged by Harriet Cockfield, manager of the Freshman class, consisted of a trip around the globe. Frances Laughlin and Mary Pearce, representing America, did a tap dance. France was presented by a visit to Madam Dorey's dress shop, through which Mary Smith, Elizabeth Burch, Kate Hardin, and Margie Frampton passed as mannequins. Germany was typified by a beer garden scene with Jean Moss and Marie Black in the part of patrons of the beer garden, and with Marjorie Mitchell as either, Chandi was presented as the personification of India with Virginia Workman as the Mahatma. Katherine Limehouse and Jean McLaughlin represented Spain with a characteristic song. Egypt was visited by a skit in which an Egyptian dancing girl performed for Cleopatra, while attendants fanned her; Frances Wall played the part of Cleopatra; Lib Stuart had the role of dancer. Afterward, Frances Edwards interpreted the spirit of San Francisco by a song as a dance number. Miriam Patrick dedicated a song to the Sophomores—"Why Don't You Practice What You Preach?" In addition, Elizabeth Black did a tap dance, and Emily Harrison sang "Cocktails For Two."
